Are You Convinced - Ex 3:1-22

God's will, and you following it, may enrage some and delight others.
We tend to listen to others more when we have exhausted our option
The elders will listen for there is no other hope. What do they have to lose?

Moses, Moses: Drawn Out, Drawn Out,

I have seen your misery – I have not forgotten you

I have heard you cry out because of your slave driver

I will save you from Pharaoh's hold – Cultural god's hold

The "Lord", Adonay God of Faithfulness and Loving kindness

➤ He sets before them: blows/wounds vs milk/honey

A land with Warrior nations

I will cause blessing to come from unimaginable sources

Egypt's gain at your cost will turn out to be your gain, the king's cost.

I will take them from this land to a good and spacious land

I am sending you, I Am with you.

Are you needing convinced?

God is aware of your need

What great power has a hold on you?

What keeps you enslaved to rebellion to God?

Fear of failure, fear of success, fear of judgement, fear of the unknown, fear of missing out.

"Story of the girl and her pearls"

How might God be trying to break the hold?

Heb 3:1-6 Moses a servant in the house Jesus is son

Matt 17:5 This is my son who I love listen to him

John 10:10 I have come so that you may have life to the full

Where of the continuum between "trusting" and "skeptical" do you fall?

Consider: What holds you back from fully trusting God? What do you ultimately trust? How is this focus of trust hindering or helping guide daily choices? Does this trust offer anything beyond this world? Where are your choices leading you? Fire on their heads
