

7-5-20

Disturbed Rest - Matthew 11:28-30

Enter my Rest – Don't Harden Our Hearts

The surprising acting of God's grace; wanting us alongside him
How we join in His work

Working together in harmony can be fun. Is he really mowing

They will just have to mow again

Unrest: How do you fix a broken world, societal upheaval, strained relationships, physical deterioration, Spiritual drought

When challenges present themselves: complain about it, fix it, or pray about it.

Do you pray then complain or pray then trust God's providence?

Do you trust His deliverance?

Song of Moses: Ex 13:15 God's unfailing love you will lead

Independence: Will they trust, will they be blessed

Numbers Video – Joining God in His Goal as Righteous

“Their protection is gone, the Lord is with us.”

When He is with us who can defeat us?

I am perplexed

➤ When you grumble & complain you're not thankful or worshipful

Murmuring: Life is not as I want it; Dissatisfied and disappointed expectations; Lack of Understanding

Distorted thinking: Their rebellion magnified past positives and minimized past negatives

God is not at the center of your understanding of how the world works
Or the motivation for how you engage the world

How long will they resist my signs and only trust in themselves?

This attitude resulted in a two week journey lasting 40 years

Battle: the lusts of the heart vs satisfied with God's direction.

Are you missing or even hindering God's blessing in your life through your “I Know Best” attitude?

Phil 4:10-13 Contentment is a result of learning from Him, leaning on Him and fully trusting in Him

Are you a Korah resisting or a Caleb trusting?