Freedom From A Tyrant - James 5:1-20

Free or enslaved: the focus mind frees, the double mind enslaves
Laws of nature and of Nature's God entitles them equality of political stature

Self-evident truths: all men are created equal endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights: life, liberty, pursuit of happiness.

Governments of the people, by the people and for the people, are to secure these rights.

When the government does not do this the people are responsible to change the government. Changing governments is not on a whim.

But when long abuse happens it is the people's duty to overthrow the government. They King established absolute tyranny of these States.

Entrust to the supreme judge: Called for patient endurance

Gal 5:1 It is for freedom that Christ set us free. Freedom is scary, Who will determine what to do?

James: Double Minded don't see their spiritual erosion to earthly trusts

What do you hear? Exploitation vs Trust (patient endurance)

Pride and impatience vs Job: The Rich and Powerful Killed Jesus

It began with the tongue: grumbling and complaining instead of joining and committing

Gal 5:1-26

2-6 What is the governing law when freedom is the new paradigm

Being justified by law is justification by personal perfection: slavery, a yoke, alienation

Being freed to express your faith through love

7-12 Who kept you from obeying the truth: Utopia or Dystopia Matrix

13-15 Freedom to indulge the flesh

Pigs returning to the mud, Dogs returning to vomit, committing spiritual adultery

16-23 Double mindedness: Gratify the Spirit or the flesh

Loving your neighbor or provoking and envying, biting and devouring,

Destroying what God created for, annihilating that which Jesus died for

22-26 Crucified passion and the singleness of mind

Tongue transplant: Troubled? pray, Content in troubles? sing, Sick?

Call Sinned? Confess and a multitude of sins will be covered

James 5:16; 19-20

Battle fatigue? Double-minded? Arrogant Pride? Endurance?
